

SOCIAL CHIC

Bargain Box of Wilmington hosted their 2nd annual benefit luncheon last Saturday at St. James Parish featuring guest speaker and Tony-award winning star Linda Lavin, who addressed the crowd on "Dressing the Part." Bargain Box clothing and accessories were featured in a fashion show styled by Costumer and Ziabird owner Lynn Manock while a Bargain Box pop-up "boutique" kept the crowd buzzing before and after the show. Bargain Box, a local resale boutique whose mantra is, "If we share what we have, we will all have enough," has awarded over $71,000 in grants, collaborated with 73 community agencies and given away over 46 tons of clothing to those in need.

Top Left: Linda Lavin (center) introduces Lynn Manock (left) to legendary costumer Peggy Farrell

Top Right: Model wearing clothing from Bargain Box

Bottom Left: Chunky Huse making a fashion statement in his peace sign scarf

Top Right: Bargain Box Director Kathy Vezzetti (left) with Anne Canada

Middle Right: Wilmington's First Lady Renee Saffo with Jess James
(the Mayor got this shot - he's got some skills!)

Bottom Left + Middle: Bargain Box fashion show models

Bottom Right: At the luncheon, Style Girl scored over-the-knee boots and a batik fringed scarf from the Bargain Box boutique!